Report on beach cleaning

14th september

Environment means surrounding. We all live in natural as well as manmade environment. Human progress is totally depends on manmade environment but it has negative effects on our natural environment. To minimise this effect we should take care of it. Mother nature gives us lot many things but as a children we are not able to take proper care of it. Because of it we have to face so many problems like global warming, increase in all types of pollution which affects our life negatively.

The motto of our NSS Unit is to make earth worth living for human beings. So we went to silver beach, Juhu to clean beach after Ganapati immersion. Our whole NSS Unit had participated in it and cleared beach. Our volunteers are learned the social responsibility as citizen.

25th January 2020

Water is the basic necessity for existence of biosphere. India is blessed with ample of natural water resources. But politicians and people are utilizing it for their personal benefit as well for industrial purpose. Greediness of people had crossed all the boundaries and playing harmful tricks with their own vicinity.

To highlight this concern and spread awareness our NSS unit had organized street play on Narmada Bacho Andolan. The script, direction and acting was done by our team independently.

The motto of the street paly was served and it also helped our volunteers to enhance their skills in different areas.

Report on Orphanage visit

21st February 2020

Visit to orphanage not only gives benefits to orphanage but visitors too. Benefits which visitors get are opportunities to discover aspects of yourself, confidence, relieves stress, gives satisfaction to help others, stabilizes your emotions, makes us able to understand the world and see to it from different perspectives.

So our NSS Volunteers had visited Sneha Sadan Orphanage for special kids. They had spent quality time with them by interacting with them. They learned from this visit that one should see to the positive aspects of life and not always have complaints against it. The orphans are special kids but they are very happy and interactive. It is rightly said if you have something then only you can give that to others.

This visit was self-satisfying for volunteers by helping society.
