Report on Mass voters awareness programme (College level)

11th October 2019

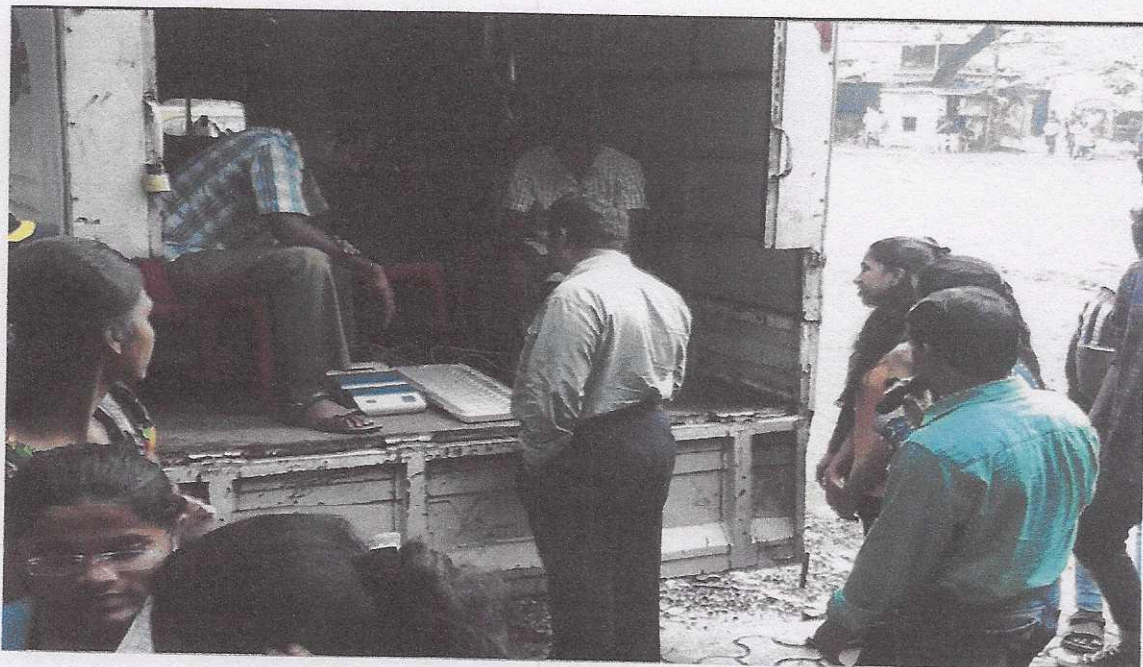

India is democratic country. As a citizen of democratic country our responsibility is to be a responsible citizen by giving vote and register ourselves after completing specified years in electoral list. Majority of Indian population is illiterate and don't understand the value of their vote.

Our NSS Unit had organised Mass Voters awareness programme in college campus for students. We had given the important information to our students related to voting right, democracy, responsibility of a democratic nations citizen. We had even assisted our student for enrolling their name for electoral list with help of government authorities.
