Report on Scholarly Publishing: Swirls Unfurled

Date of Training: 14th June 2021 to 18th June 2021

Mode: Online

Organising College: Patrician College of Arts and Science

Report:

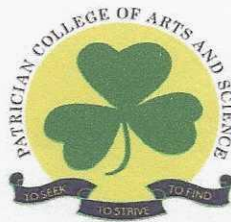

In these five days sessions were taught how to introduce our topic. We were taught various techniques to be implemented to publish the paper or journal. It is a tedious job to get the things done but as we know where there is will there is a way. So once we decide to publish our paper or journal then we need to follow various things where we need to sacrifice lot of things. We were also taught how to unfurl out swirls which we face time and often.

Report:

In these two days FDP we were taught about the Research & Teaching Skill Enhancement as it was tough time for students during COVID. They require different skills to acquaint themselves with the current market institution. Whenever we have to teach students about different advancement that takes place every now and then. These sessions were very helpful to help us to do new research work and also to implement various techniques while teaching.

Report on the "Advanced Research Methodology Workshop and Statistical Analysis for Social Sciences"

Organized by Virudhunagar Hindu Nadars Senthikumara Nadar College

Dates: December 27, 2021, to December 29, 2021

Introduction:

I had the privilege of attending the "Advanced Research Methodology Workshop and Statistical Analysis for Social Sciences" organized by the Virudhunagar Hindu Nadars Senthikumara Nadar College. The workshop took place from December 27 to December 29, 2021 online, and aimed to enhance participants' knowledge and skills in research methodology and statistical analysis, specifically tailored for social sciences.

Day 1: Research Methodology

The first day of the workshop focused on research methodology. The sessions were led by experts in the field, and they covered various aspects of research, including:

Understanding Research Design

1. Data Collection Methods
2. Ethical Considerations
3. Research Proposal Writing

Day 2: Statistical Analysis

The second day of the workshop was dedicated to statistical analysis, providing attendees with a comprehensive understanding of data analysis techniques commonly used in social sciences research. Key topics covered included:

1. Descriptive Statistics
2. Inferential Statistics.
3. Software Applications
4. Data Visualization

Day 3: Practical Application

The third day involved the application of the knowledge gained in the previous days. Participants were divided into groups, and they were tasked with designing a research project, collecting data, and performing statistical analysis on real-world datasets. This hands-on experience allowed participants to apply the research and statistical concepts they had learned during the workshop.

Conclusion:

The "Advanced Research Methodology Workshop and Statistical Analysis for Social Sciences" organized by the Virudhunagar Hindu Nadars Senthikumara Nadar College was a valuable and enriching experience. The workshop provided a comprehensive overview of research methodology and statistical analysis, which are indispensable for social sciences research.

The workshop's expert speakers and practical sessions greatly enhanced the participants' knowledge and skills in these areas. The hands-on experience on the third day was particularly beneficial, allowing participants to apply what they had learned and gain a deeper understanding of the research process.

I would like to express my gratitude to the organizers, the knowledgeable speakers, and the dedicated staff of the college for making this workshop a success and for providing a platform for participants to enhance their research capabilities.
