Some of the important tips mentioned by her were e.g.

- In Google Scholar when you put your search in " " than it gives you better results.
- How to download the citation in APA style was explained by her.
- She also explained how to apply filters to the downloaded material.
- New articles are added every day. How to know about these new articles. Google Scholar creates ALERT. This function how to use was explained.

- How to do Advance Search of data base like I want articles on both water and air pollution so when I put in Advance search "Water and Air Pollution" it will narrow my search and when I state "Water or Air Pollution" it will broaden my search.

The session was ended by giving demonstration of how to search articles for various topics given by various teachers on which they were doing their Ph.D.

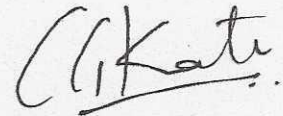

A formal Vote of thanks was given by Mr. Chitrarth Kate
