(5th December 2024)

Plagiarism

Presenting work or ideas from another source as your own, with or without consent of the original author, by incorporating it into your work without full acknowledgement.

Why does plagiarism matter?

- Plagiarism is a breach of academic integrity.
- It is a principle of intellectual honesty that all members of the academic community should acknowledge their debt to the originators of the ideas, words, and data which form the basis for their own work.
- Paying off another's work as your own is not only poor scholarship, but also means that you have failed to complete the learning process.
- Plagiarism is unethical and can have serious consequences for your future career. It also undermines the standards of your institution and of the degree it issues.

Common types of plagiarism

- Complete plagiarism
- Direct plagiarism
- Paraphrasing plagiarism
- Self plagiarism
- Patchwork plagiarism
- Source-based plagiarism
- Accidental plagiarism
